Week A

Prayerful intentions this week...

As well as your own private intentions, our community intention for prayer at the beginning of lessons is for...

Our families, grandparents and the elderly...

This week marks the Jubilee celebration of families, children, Grandparents and the elderly

Prayer

O Jesus,
through the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
We offer You my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day for all the intentions of Your Sacred Heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for our sins, for the intentions of all my relatives and friends,
and in particular for the intentions of the Holy Father.

Amen

St Michael – Pray for Us
All the Angels and Saints – Pray for Us

Run Rebel
By Manjeet Mann

I am restless, my feet need to fly.

Amber is trapped - by her father's rules, by his expectations, by her own fears.

Now she's ready to fight - for her mother, for her sister, for herself.

This is an expressive piece featuring four self-portraits that explore the internal pressures of identity, ambition, and self-worth. I've exaggerated the never ending struggle for perfection, success, and validation through achievements and education. At the centre, the clock constantly asks the question "am I good enough?" representing the contrasting feelings between time pressured and the never ending cycle of success. Surrounding it is different expressions of myself, each showing different emotions. The smile masks what is truly felt, hence its placement, the monochromatic eyes represent rationality and observation, the blue surreal portrait depicts discipline, and the purple one-tiredness. Each part of these represent a version of me stuck in a loop of expectations which i mostly put on myself. The chain circling the expressions symbolises the inescapability of the loop and also mirrors the cyclic nature of success. The words written on the planets are overwhelming internal thoughts and reminders-the strings holding them up show that they are not real, and that I put them upon myself, emphasising the irrationality of the loop. The key floating outside the chain shows that this is escapable, and the answer is within me, but ambition prevents me from using it.

Pope Leo XIV

Lord, source of eternal life and truth, give to your shepherd, Pope Leo, a spirit of courage and right judgment, a spirit of knowledge and love.

By governing with fidelity those entrusted to his care, may he, as successor to the Apostle Peter and Vicar of Christ, build your Church into a sacrament of unity, love and peace for all the world.

Amen.
