

Prayer

Gracious God,

- We thank you for the beautiful tapestry of faces, voices, and stories that fill our school hallways.
- We praise you for your boundless creativity—for the different cultures, languages, and backgrounds that reflect your infinite image. Help us to remember that though we are many, we are one body in Christ.
- During this Diversity Week, open our hearts to listen with humility to those whose experiences differ from our own and to learn from the unique gifts each student and teacher brings to this community and love without boundaries, just as you love us.
- May we always be a school where every person feels seen, valued, and respected. Teach us to build bridges of understanding and to celebrate the harmony found in our differences.

Amen.

Week A

Prayerful intentions this week...

As well as your own private intentions, our community intention for prayer at the beginning of lessons is for...

Our school community during this Diversity Week...

...That we may recognise the Spark of the Divine in every person we meet, moving beyond our prejudices to embrace the beauty of our different backgrounds, cultures, and abilities. May we work together to build a home of belonging where no one is a stranger and everyone is a cherished child of God.

DON' T FORGET TO CHECK

IN NF2. WHY DON' T YOU WRITE A REVIEW?

Twelve-year old Charley is set on becoming the first female pitcher to play professional baseball, even if that's a lofty dream for a Black girl in the American South in the 1920s. Even so, her grandfather Kofi's thrilling stories about courageous ancestors and epic journeys make it impossible not to dream big. She knows he has so much more to tell, but according to her parents, she isn't old enough to know about certain things, like what happened to Booker Preston that one night in Great Bridge, and why she can never play on the brand-new baseball field on the other side of town.

When Charley challenges a neighbourhood bully to a game at the church picnic, she knows she can win, even with her ragtag team. Then a dispute on the field leads to Charley making a fateful decision, one that will bring consequences she never could have imagined.

College Prayer

Lord, thank you for the gift of this day and the time to live and love in your world.

May we be brought to the fullness of life by the Salesian values taught to us
by St John Bosco.

We ask St. Michael our protector to watch over us in our mission to overcome evil with good.

Amen
