Philippians 4:6–7 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God."

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

We bring our school family before You at the start of this new week, offering You our studies, our friendships, and our daily lives.

As we celebrate Black History Month, we give thanks for the rich diversity of our school community. Remind us that every person is created in Your image and endowed with sacred dignity.

Give us the courage to honour the contributions of all our community, stand up against discrimination, and build a school rooted in fairness, respect, and love as we begin Black History Month.

During this month of the Holy Rosary, we turn to Our Lady for peace. As we approach World Mental Health Day, we pray for anyone in our school community who is feeling anxious, weary, or carrying heavy burdens. Grant us peace of mind, and give us attentive, caring hearts to support one another in times of need.

Amen

Challenge for the Week

"Gracious words are like a honeycomb, sweetness to the soul and health to the body." — Proverbs 16:24

Your challenge for the Week:

To mark National Poetry Day and World Mental Health Day, use the gift of words to uplift someone's mental health and emotional well-being.

Before Friday, write down a short poem, inspirational quote, or line of scripture—perhaps drawing from a Black poet, author, or saint—and hand it to a classmate, teacher, or support staff member with a brief note of gratitude.

A few thoughtful, encouraging words can brighten someone's whole day and remind them that they are valued.

Orwell

It was a bright cold day in April, and the clocks were striking thirteen.'

Winston Smith works for the Ministry of Truth in London, chief city of Airstrip One. Big Brother stares out from every poster, the Thought Police uncover every act of betrayal. When Winston finds love with Julia, he discovers that life does not have to be dull and deadening, and awakens to new possibilities. Despite the police helicopters that hover and circle overhead, Winston and Julia begin to question the Party: they are drawn towards conspiracy. Yet Big Brother will not tolerate dissent - even in the mind. For those with original thoughts they invented Room 101...
