Matthew 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit..."

Prayer

Heavenly Father,

We gather as a school family as we begin this final week of half term, bringing into Your presence our study, our work, and our care for one another.

As we continue Black History Month, we praise You for the vibrant gift of our diverse school community. Teach us to recognise Your divine image in every person, to celebrate the stories of those we meet, and to stand together against injustice, building a school culture of genuine equality and love.

On the feast of Blessed Alexandrina Maria da Costa, patron for young people, we ask for her prayers. Even amidst severe physical illness, she dedicated her life to praying for youth and bringing people closer to Christ. Help us to offer up our own daily challenges with faith, knowing that You can turn every struggle into a source of strength and grace.

As we prepare for World Mission Sunday, remind us that we are all called to be missionaries of Your love. Expand our hearts beyond our own corridors to care for our global family, supporting those living in poverty, conflict, or hardship across the world.

Send Your Holy Spirit upon our community this week, that our words may bring peace and our actions may reflect Your light.

Amen

Student Chaplaincy Challenge for the Week

"Go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation." — Mark 16:15

Become a "local missionary" of kindness in your school community before Friday.

Choose one concrete act of service that supports someone else without seeking credit—such as holding open doors, helping a teacher organise a classroom, sitting with someone who looks lonely at break, or supporting a global charity effort for World Mission Sunday.

BOOK RECOMMENDATION OF THE WEEK

Book
Recommendation

Fahrenheit
451 by Ray
Bradbury

Guy Montag is a fireman. His job is to destroy the most illegal of all commodities, the printed book, along with the homes in which they are hidden. Montag never questions his orders to destroy and to ruin, returning each day to his bland life and to his wife, Mildred, who is content to spend all day with her television 'family'.

But then Montag meets Clarisse, who shows him a past where people didn't live in fear and a present where the world can be seen through ideas in book and not just the screen of a television, and he begins to question everything he has ever known.
